Official Notice of Student Charges – Academic Year 2023-2024

Howard University hereby announces the tuition rates, housing rates, meal plan rates, and student fees for the 2023-24 Academic Year.

In announcing the student charges for the academic year, Howard University wishes to emphasize that Howard's tuition remains low compared to other private universities in the D.C. region and compared to other similarly ranked private universities in the U.S. overall. Student charges at Howard also compare favorably to student charges at other Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

This notice details all the approved tuition rates and other student charges that have been approved and/or re-affirmed by Howard University's Board of Trustees.

For the 2023-24 academic year, the Board has approved the following changes in student charges:

- A 7.5% increase in undergraduate tuition.
- A not-to-exceed 15% increase for the opt-out Student Health Insurance Fee, pending final rates to be provided by United Health Care.
- School-specific tuition and fees adjustments as listed herein.
- An average 3% increase in housing rates.
- An average 4.2% increase in dining rates.

All other student fees, including school and course-specific fees, have been reaffirmed.

The undersigned hereby certify that the tuition rates and student charges set forth herein were duly adopted or re-affirmed by the Board of Trustees of Howard University at its meetings on November 4, 2022, or at previous meetings of the Board.

Christie Taylor
Secretary of the Board of Trustees

Stephen Graham
Chief Financial Officer

Official Notice of Student Charges – Academic Year 2023-2024

1 Tuition and Enrollment Related Fees – General Information

1.1 Pricing

Tuition is based on (a) the enrollment status of the student, (b) the semester, and (c) the school or college attended.

1.1.1 Enrollment Status

- Full-time status is when a student is enrolled in a minimum of 12 credits in the fall AND spring semester.
- Part-time status is when a student is enrolled in less than 12 credits in the fall OR spring semester.

1.1.2 Semesters

Tuition is based on the semester, and the student's enrollment status.

- For full time students: a flat rate tuition is charged. Included in the tuition is a total of 42 credits that may be taken throughout the academic year, which includes the fall, spring, and (if eligible) summer semesters.
 - For the fall and spring semesters: tuition covers between 12 – 21 credits. Credits taken above the maximum of 21 credits are charged an additional amount, based on the full- time excess credit rate.
 - For summer semester the summer semester credit rate is used per credit taken.
- For part time students:
 - For fall and spring semester: a part time credit rate is applied to credits taken.
 - For summer semester: a summer semester credit rate is applied to credits taken.

1.1.3 Application of Payments to Student Charges

When a student submits a payment to their student account, payments are applied in order based on a hierarchy of charges, as follows:

1. Tuition
2. Fees
3. Housing
4. Meal Plan
5. Parking

3 Other Information about Tuition Charges

3.1 Dual Degree Programs

- Dual degree candidates will be charged tuition based on the school or college that administrates the dual degree program. For instance:
- The School of Social Work offers dual degree programs with the School of Business and the School of Divinity; therefore, a student will be charged the tuition associated with the School of Social Work for the duration of the dual degree program.

3.2 Tuition Discounts

Howard has programs where eligible students may qualify for tuition discounts.

3.2.1 Undergraduate Tuition Discount for Multiple Siblings Concurrently Enrolled

A ten percent (10%) undergraduate tuition discount is available for multiple siblings who are attending Howard University concurrently in full-time status effective August 15, 2017. In cases where siblings from the same family are enrolled in both undergraduate and graduate and professional degree programs, the discount will only apply to the tuition of the undergraduate students.

Please refer to the published policy for complete detail on guidelines and eligibility.
